“ Happy Birthday Moma, today you would have been 81. It still feels like you just left us. I'm thankful that I know your pain is gone. As bad as it feels I would never want you to live in the pain you were in. I miss you and Daddy so very much. I know it won't be long before we are all together forever. I miss you Moma, and I love you.

“ My mother was a wonder momma who I was not always the best daughter to. I am so glad that the last several years we became closer than ever. I have so many wonderful memories to hold but my heart breaks now. I miss her so much already. I keep wanting to go see her and I can't. Picking up the phone. I wouldn't bring her back to the pain she was in for nothing. I love you and miss you momma.

Hello Mrs. Moody, I dont know you. In fact, I dont know anyone related to your mother. I volunteer in posting comforting comments on the obituary list. I know exactly how you feel, my mother suffered an illness for several years and passed away 3 years ago. My heart was and still is in pain just like you mentioned in your posting. Yhry say that Time will soften the pain, it true. God is the God of all comforts for all dwells. By reaching out to him, he will sustain you in these moments. The way to reach out to him is by praying. It is very important to pray because this is the way to communicate with him. Within that prayer, you can open your heart to him and pour all of your pain and suffering. And when you conclude your prayer, you will feel some comfort knowing that he was listening to all the words you were expressing. My condolences to you and your family.

“ Beulah was the sweetest woman i knew. I grew up with Tessa and spent a lot of my childhood in her home and I can honestly say thats what made my childhood so good. I never ever heard or felt any harshness from Beulah, always so loving and warm. The memories i cherish the most would be when she would get out her banjo and play some good gospel music and she would love it when me and Tessa would sing those good old baptist hymns to her. Old rugged cross was one of my favorites. I will miss her very much and deeply regret not seeing her and spending more time with her.

Your momma was one of the sweetest, most precious women I have met in my entire life. Bit of your parents were. When we were little, your dad would pick me up in his old pick up truck to spend the night with you and I remember eating Lemonheads riding down the road. Some of my fondest childhood memories were spent with you and Katie either at your house or hers.

I am so sorry for your loss. You and your family will be in my prayers.
