“ I miss you so much daddy. Seems like when things get going good..I get knocked down again. I'm at that point where I am going to end up having a nervous breakdown. I lost you and now the man I have been with for 10yrs tells me he doesn't love me anymore. I'm going to lose everything I have. Your not here to give me a home. My life has fallen apart since you left. I love and miss you daddy!

“ None of this seems real! I look back at the times we spent together. I want to pick up the phone and call to hear your voice one last time. This is killing me knowing i was the last person that talked you and you left us the day before my birthday. I know your not hurting or suffering anymore. I will see you when you again when my time comes. Cayden doesnt understand where you but he says papaw in the sky! Please guide us along our way. Keep the sun shining and stars bright. I love and miss you daddy more then anyone knows.
Love your lil girl, kristi

“ Clarence was with my mom for over 7 years. He was like my step father and he will always be my step father. He treated all of us kids like his own and like my son was his grandson. Til this day we still considered him family. We lost a good man with the biggest heart in the world. And all my sister's will always love him. And my heart will always have an empty spot with the lose of Clarence. All of our prayers love and sympathy to the kids and family and I'm so sorry for your loss. I'll love you forever Clarence.

“ Dad where do I even begin. I just wanted to write this memory and tell you how much that I love you and how much I'm gonna miss you so bad. Idk why you left me so soon. I wish I could bring you back but I know you are resting in peace without any pain. I don't know what I'm going to do without you in my life anymore. I know you are still in my heart and will be with me every step of the way til my time comes to see you again. I love and miss you so much. You was not only my dad but my best friend. I will keep you in my heart forever and ever. R.i.p daddy I love you

“ Clarence I miss you already. We had a lot of good days out on the back porch drinking coffee and talking about old times. We got through the pain of losing Roy and now you are with him. I know that made you happy tell him that I love him and miss him. You always liked mine and Steve's cornbread with your milk. I miss those times. Well your not suffering now so that makes me feel better. Love you your cousin Rennie
