“ My cousin, my best friend for years. We talked about this day years ago. I can not believe its here. If I didn't feel like I could talk to anyone else I knew I had you. You always had my back. We had our fights but we always got over it. We would have got over it this time. You always told me that if/when you passed you was coming back to keep me coming. Well I am looking forward to it sister. I am a little scared because you absolutely loved scaring me. Good memories..

“ She talked about you all, all the time. She loved her Michigan family so much. Anytime she got mad at any of us, she would always say I'm moving to Michigan! I would beg her not to most of the time. Time or 2 I'll be honest i offered to help her pack.. I won't say what her response was. lol I am going to miss her so much..
