“ Wesley was the only father-figure I ever knew. I met him when I was six, he raised and taught me a lot. It is a shame that because I am not related by blood to the only father I knew that I was not placed on the obituary, nor contacted about a memorial. My wife and I will remember him fondly, and sadly my daughter will never know him. - I know in the grand scheme of things these things do not matter, and may seem petty, but it still hurts. - I hope you are on the other side, reunited with your dad...catching some fish with him and my Mamaw. Rest in peace Wesley, you will be remembered, and some day I will see you again.
